Under special circumstances the insurance company may require an extension of this 90 day period in which case you will receive written notice from the neurance company, prior to the end of the initial 90 days, informing you of the need for an extension. This extension period allows the Insurance company an additional 80 days to review your ciain, During this period the insurance company may require a medical examination, at its own expense, or additional informalocation. It is important to keep any appointments made since reacheduling exams will delay the claim process. From the date your nolice of cleim is returned, the insurance tion is order to make a determination on your ofaim. If additional information is required you will receive a request, in writing, specfying the nature of the information needed and an explanation as to why it is needed. If a medical examination is necessary you will be given the time of appointment and the doctor's name

If you are not notified of the ciaim status within 90 days and you have been notified that the extension period has been applied, you may request a review of your claim by following the procedure outlined under "Ctaim Review Procedure".

Once your claim has been approved, you will receive the appropriate benefit from the insurance Company.

What If your Benefits are denied?

If your claim for benefite is denied in whole or part, you will receive written notice of such denial within the 90 day period stated above (or 180 days if the extension period is required).

Each written notice of denial shall set forth:

- 1) the specific reason(s) for the denial of the olatin
- a specific reference to the provision(s) of the Group Policy upon which the denial is based; and
- notice of your right to have the denial reviewed by the insurance Company.

Claim Review Procedure

If you receive a written notice of denial, you or your duly authorized representative may request a review of the claim by giving written notice to the insurance Company. This request for a review must be made to the Plan Administrator within 60 days of the receipt of denial by the insurance company. If such request is not made within 60 days you will be deemed to have walved your right to a review by the insurance Company. Once the Insurance Company receives a request for a review, a prompt review of the claim must take place. You or your authorized representative have the right to review documents that might have a bearing on the claim including the documents which establish and controt the plan, and to submit issues and comments that you teel might affect the outcome of the review.

Upon completion of a full and complete review, the Insurance Company will notify you in writing of the results, ciling plan provisions that control the decision. The insurance Company has 60 days to notify you of the decision unless special obcumstances require an extension of time. If an extension is required, the Insurance Company shall notify you of the need for an extension before the end of the initial 60 day period for completing the review procedure. This means that the insurance Company will have an additional 60 days to notify you of the decision on your denied clain.
